Residential on 0.05 Acres

ECHO DALE, Gaithersburg, MD

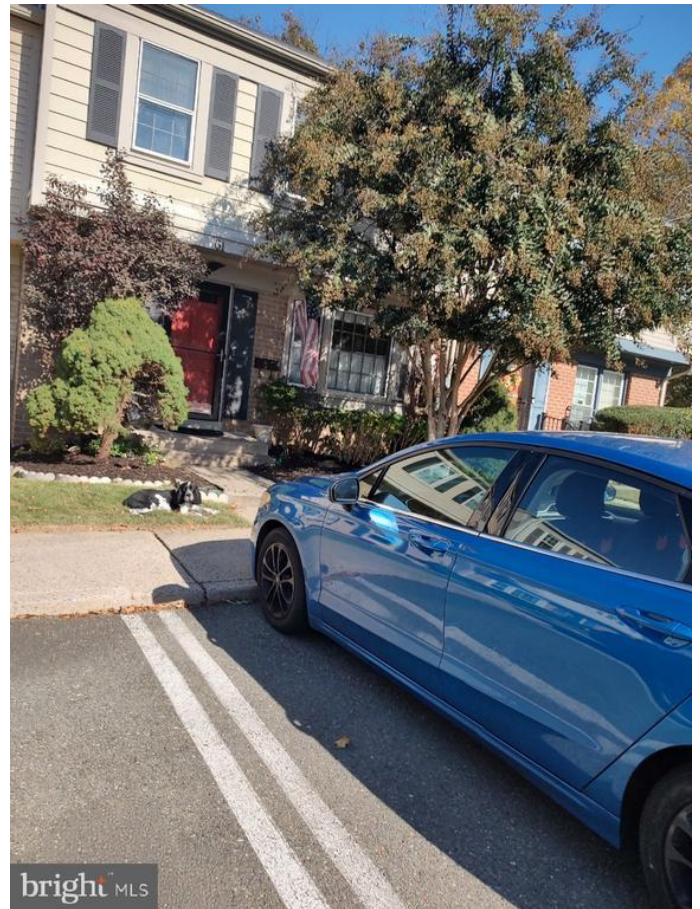

After 30 plus years of love and care for this home it is now ready to be passed on to the next lucky owner . This rarely available townhome in the sought after Echo Dale subdivision has 3 bedrooms and 2 updated baths on the top level of living space . On the main level you are greeted with a powder room along with a light filled Kitchen area with a large front window . The kitchen also has a direct access to the formal dining area that overlooks a spacious rarely available sunken living room area also with large windows for great light. And don't forget to descend to the finished basement area with a lovely Fireplace area with ample living space another half bath for convenience . An additional wall unit with matching bookcases allow for lots of space for your things . Also there is plenty of room in the washer dryer area in the back for additional storage space. And of course there is a sliding door that leads to the patio area out back and the lush landscaping for beauty and solitude with nature . There is also ample shed space to store your outdoor equipment . Major systems are ten years young . This is a great opportunity for someone to continue the pride of ownership that has lasted for decades !

Built in 1972
